Frida Kahlo

Kahlo was an artist born in 1907 in Mexico City. She is known for vibrant colors, tropical and warm natural elements and interesting self-portraits. Her paintings were labeled folk art and surrealist, because they weren't realistic, but more imaginative. She liked to paint herself and include symbolic elements from her personal life, relationships and culture.

Every morning there was a parade to the kitchen.

Left, right, left right! They marched.
